The Faculty of Veterinary Medicine in Giessen/Germany invites applications for a

W3 Professorship for Veterinary Pathology

as of now

Reference is made to § 61 section 7 Hessisches Hochschulgesetz (HHG) and to conditions of employment based on § 62 HHG. Proficient knowledge of German is expected.

The successful candidate will represent the faculty in teaching, research and diagnostics and take over the management of the institute.

We are looking for an internationally qualified specialist with proven experience in veterinary pathological research. We expect innovative research with a scientific focus on neuropathology and cancer biology. The willingness for interdisciplinary cooperation within the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine and with other life science faculties of the Justus Liebig University as well as in larger research programs of the research alliance „Forschungscampus Mittelhessen“ (www.fcmh.de) is anticipated. High-ranked, international publications as well as autonomous, successful fundraising activities are obligatory. Furthermore, we expect the candidate to actively participate in the relevant international activities of the faculty, to further promote the faculty’s international profile, and to strengthen JLU’s international network. Obligatory prerequisites for applicants are a Ph.D. or habilitation or equivalent scientific achievements in veterinary pathology. In addition, the candidate should be admitted as a national Veterinary Specialist in Pathology and/or as Diplomate of Veterinary Pathology).

Active involvement in the support of early career researchers as part of the Giessen Graduate Centre for the Life Sciences and the combined Ph.D. program of the Faculties of Veterinary Medicine and Human Medicine is expected.

Teaching covers the field of Veterinary Pathology according to the „Tierärztliche Approbationsverordnung“ (TAppV) and study regulation specifications of the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine. Teaching as well as diagnostics are performed in cooperation with the second professorship at the Institute of Veterinary Pathology. The integration of gender issues in teaching and research is strongly encouraged.

Justus Liebig University Giessen (JLU) aims to employ more women in academic research. We therefore particularly encourage female candidates to apply. JLU also pursues the goal at faculty leadership level of increased competence in dealing with gender and family-related issues. JLU is regarded as a family-friendly university. Applicants with children are very welcome. Applications from disabled people of equal aptitude will be given preference.

Please send your letter of application (no e-mails, please) with a CV and a documentation of your qualifications and teaching competence to: The President of Justus Liebig University Giessen, Erwin-Stein-Gebäude, Goethestrasse 58, 35390 Giessen, Germany, quoting reference number 0-21/17. Applications must be received by 28th February, 2018 at the latest.

Candidates are strongly recommended to refer to our webpage on employment http://www.uni-giessen.de/stellenmarkt/ and application procedures at: http://www.uni-giessen.de/stellenmarkt/merkblatt.pdf.
