Lonely Planet: "Utrecht underestimated"

Utrecht is one of the most underestimated cities in the world, says travel guide publisher Lonely Planet. On their list of '10 of the world's unsung places' Utrecht ranks 6th.

Lonely Planet suggests that the vicinity of our nation's capital may be to blame: "Perhaps it's the lure of Amsterdam that leads people to forget Utrecht. Whatever the reason, this graceful city is bizarrely under-visited. Its old town is encircled by a medieval canal, and you can hop on a boat tour to visit the city's bustling, vibrant wharves. Built to connect the canal side with Utrecht's impressive townhouses, today these unique spaces are filled with bohemian cafes, shops, restaurants and bars."
